COME BACK TO STAY.—Our old friend E. D. Towl, of Salem, who has been absent about three months, on a visit to the East, arrived at this city yesterday by the overland route. He says he is going straight to Salem, buy a lot in the Cemetery, and stay in Oregon till he hears are ready to occupy the lot. He wouldn't give us a good Oregon farm for half the Eastern States with the condition that he must live there. He don't like the climate East; can't bear the cold, abominates the heat, is not favorably impressed with the manner of doing business, and thinks, as a country to live in, the Atlantic States are no great shakes, anyhow, compared with the Pacific coast. In the farming districts, he says, the houses and fences, as a general thing, do not compare favorably with those of Oregon, and the people do not live as comfortably. Speaking of houses, he says that with the exception of public builds, State and national he saw nothing to excel in beauty and good style many of the buildings in this city and in Salem. He thinks Ladd & Tilton's bank building in this city, a finer one in appearance than any building he saw East, with the exceptions above mentioned. The railroads have killed about half the smart, thriving little villages and towns he used to know, while they are contributing to build up a few large cities. Off the railroad lines, the country looks dull and slow. He thinks he will hereafter be content to remain himself a permanent settler in Oregon, and that he won't talk any more about "going home."

FROM WARREN'S DIGGINGS.—The Commercial of last evening had the following extract from a private letter written at Warren's Diggings, May 9th

We are still at work on the Rescue lead and the prospects are flattering. We have a shaft seventy feet deep and found good paying ore all the way down, and are now stopping east and west. On the west we have a three foot ledge. The ore is very uniform in richness and the gold is worth $13 per ounce. We will have fifty tons of choice ore for smelting the last of this week. It cannot yield less than $70 per ton, judging from the yield of our first ten tons, which was nearly $50 per ton. The ledge grows larger and wider as we go down upon it. The mine is the best opened of any in camp, and we have the best conveniences for working it. Four hundred feet of our ground has been prospected along the surface, showing good ore all that distance. We have 800 feet in all. What the remaining portion will prospect we know not, as we have not prospected it. Single claims of 200 feet each are held at $3,000; which are entirely outside of the Discovery Company's claims. If our mine improves in appearance in the same ratio that it has the last month, it will command $100 per foot in any good market for mining stocks. The company propose buying the steam mill and putting it right on the ledge, or just below, so that the ore can be dumped from the mine into the mill."

AT ——— LOCATION.—We went out yesterday to that tract of land, west of King's creek, known on the map as "Johnson's Addition." It is situated about one mile from the foot of Jefferson street, and the east line of the Addition is just about in line with an extension of Jefferson street. Mr. A. H. Johnson owns there ten acres of land lying on a sort of table land sloping gently toward the city and overlooking the city, the river for a considerable distance up and down, and all the country on the east side. He has had it laid off into two blocks, each bounded by streets on all sides; each block divided into eleven lots facing east and the same number facing west, fifty feet wide and one hundred and fifty-seven feet long. Each lot contains, therefore, ground enough for a delightful residence. There is no tract ——— that distance of the business portion of the city which lies so handsomely, of which has so beautiful a ——— The soil appears to be good for gardening purposes, and excellent water can be obtained in wells of not more than forty feet in depth. One or two persons have already purchased lots on the Addition with a view of putting up residences. Messrs. Stitzel & Upton are agents for sale of lots, and they inform us that they will offer advantageous terms.

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS.—We learn from a gentleman who came down from Albany on Wednesday, that at the time he left there, the parties in interest in the Brownsville Woolen Mill were about to effect a compromise of conflicting interests, by which the mill will be put in operation again at an early day. It will be remembered that some months ago the factory building was ———. The old company was in debt for borrowed money, and were either not able or willing to rebuild. Another company was formed which did rebuild, whereupon the creditors came upon them for the debts of the old company and obtained judgments, upon which the ——— and water power were sold. The buyer was not able to go ahead, and so the enterprise has ever since stood still. Happily now an arrangement has been effected by which this important manufacturing enterprise will be soon again contributing to the wealth of Linn and adjoining counties.

———NAL.—Captain Lafollett, late appointee as Indian Agent at Grande Ronde Reservation, arrived from Salem by the Oregon City boat yesterday afternoon. He visits this city for the purpose of submitting his official bond to the U. S. District Attorney, for approval. He will return home to-day, and will probably assume his agency early next week.

By the Oregon City boat, yesterday, several well known ——— of Eastern Oregon arrived, among the number Mr. ——— of Union county, O. Humason, of the Dalles, and ———.

Mr. ——— R. Heim, of Albany, who has been on a trip to ——— Oregon for his health, which is poor, arrived also by the Cascade.

AS L——— ANT WORK.—In pursuance of authority given by the Council the City Attorney is getting out a ——— containing the City Charter with all its amendments and all ordinances passed by the Council. There ought to be published a thorough digest of these matters, but the collection in one volume of all amendments to the charter and the ordinances in the order of their ——— will prove a work of great value. Mr. A. M. Walling is doing the printing, and it is expected the ——— will be ready for issue within a week.

FIRE AT THE DALLES.—The following dispatch was received at this city yesterday:

"This morning at 4:30 a portion of the second story of the Wa——— Woolen Mill in this city, took fire probably from a ——— combustion of wool, oil, etc. For a short time it was feared that all the buildings would be ———, but the fire department was promptly on the spot, and the ——— were soon subdued. The damage is ——— probably about $1,000. It will not be necessary to ——— operations for repairs."

THE ——— SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Unitarian Sunday ——— picnic will take place (weather permitting) on ——— next (to-morrow), at the grove on the west bank of the Willamette river, near Mr. James Stephens. The ——— will leave Vaughn's wharf, foot of Morrison street, at a quarter before eight o'clock A. M. Scholars, parents and friends are expected to be there at that time

———'s COURT.—A lively day in this court yesterday—two "drunk and disorderly," one simple "drunk," one "drunk and lying on the sidewalk," and two assault and ——— cases. There are twenty-five days in jail to be served out by the "drunks."

STAGE HORSES.—The Cascade brought down yesterday twenty head of horses from Eastern Oregon for use on the stage route between Monticello and Olympia. It is ——— grow, we think, to go east of the mountains for stock of this kind.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark H. W. Almy was towed down, ——— ably, by the steamer Okanagan. She carried away over four hundred and fifty tons produce, consisting mostly of flour, with small lots of wheat, oats, dried apples, etc., for San Francisco.

FOR ——— UP THE COLUMBIA.—Passengers leaving this morning will connect with the up river boats for Lewiston. Until further notice, passengers wishing to go to Lewiston should leave this city on Friday's boat.

WORK BEGUN.—The work of excavating for the foundation of the Odd Fellows' Hall, corner of Alder and First streets, was begun yesterday, under the superintendence of Mr. Perry Baker.

A PLAY NEXT WEEK.—We are informed that there will be a performance at Oro Fino Theater some time next week, for the benefit of either Mr. Barry or Mr. Vinson, or perhaps both.

ABSCONDING PICNIC POSTPONED.—The Sunday School Picnic of Trinity Church and St. Stephen's chapel has been postponed to June 5th in consequence of the continued rains.

ARRIVED.—The bark Jane A. Fullinburg has arrived in the Columbia river, and the steamer Okanagan was ——— to tow her up last night.

AT SAN FRANCISCO.—The Hattie C. Besse arrived at San ——— on the 26th inst, five days from the Columbia river.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—The following recommendation comes from a source of such well known and indisputable character, that it requires no comment beyond its ——— tion:

I have given 'Kane's Imperial Condensed Soap' a thorough and impartial trial, and am satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it. I washed three dozen white shirts, using half a bar of soap. It did its work well, requiring no rubbing, and I cheerfully recommend it as the best Washing Compound I ever used.

There is no mistake about it, PLANTATION BITTERS will ward off Fever and Ague and all kindred diseases, if used in time. No family need suffer from this distressing scourge if they will keep PLANTATION BITTERS in the house, and use it according to directions. The most important ingredient of this medicine is Calisaya or Peruvian bark, which is known to be the finest and purest tonic in the vegetable kingdom. The extract of this bark is the active principle of all good Fever and Ague medicines prescribed by intelligent doctors. Calisaya bark is used extensively in the manufacture of Plantation Bitters and we dare say, owes their popularity mostly to that fact. We can recommend them

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Orifamme, it will be positively known where the ——— Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further doubt, will be established at the well known house of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest, best and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Dry Goods can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

Owing to the great demand for Burnell Hats, we have received another large invoice of them. For a summer hat there is nothing cooler or of prettier style. The Gaufrin, Cable, Clayton, Barclay, and many others of the latest styles can be found at Financial Policy of Secretary Boutwell.

THE WEEKLY PURCHASE OF GOVERNMENT BONDS

WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 8, 1869

When the fact became known this morning that Secretary Boutwell had dispatched orders to Assistant Secretary Van Wyck, at New York, to buy Government bonds to the amount of $1,000,000 per week, on the same plan by which gold is sold by sealed proposals, after due notice by advertising it led to much discussion among financial men

This move on the part of Secretary Boutwell foreshadows clearly the policy which is to be pursued while he remains at the head of the Treasury Department. In conversation with our correspondent this morning he said it was his intention to have a policy which no one could misunderstand, and which would prevent the Department from being used to enrich speculators all over the country. When it becomes necessary to alter or change its presents policy the fact would be made public either before or after the close of business hours, in order that no one person could have an undue advantage over another through the fluctuations in the money market. In every case the information would be published before the officers charged with executing the orders have the official information as to the course they are to pursue.

The Secretary will act entirely according to the condition of the Treasury, and will determine his policy by the receipts and expenditures of the Department, and not from the condition of the money market in New York or elsewhere

If the receipts of Government justify it, bonds will undoubtedly be purchased in amounts larger than one million of dollars per week. It is the Secretary's purpose to hold these bonds as a sinking fund, and not to cancel them. He is strongly urged to change his order to buy bonds so far as to substitute three per cent. certificates in their place, but this he positively refuses to do.

Unless something at present unforeseen should occur rendering a change absolutely necessary, it is the Secretary's intention to adhere closely to his present policy until the assembling of Congress next Winter.

NEW VARIETIES OF GRAIN.—Amongst the seeds forwarded by the Commissioner of Agriculture to the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, are some Black Swedish Oats, White Schonen Oats, and Excelsior Oats—the first two varieties imported from Hamburg, and the latter from England. A letter from the Commissioner to Senator Corbett, which accompanies the Excelsior variety, says they weigh fifty-one pounds to the measured bushel, and yield from fifty to eighty bushels per acre, while common oats yield only from thirty to sixty bushels on the same ground. The remarkable plumpness of the Excelsior oats justifies the hope that the statements regarding them may be true. Although arriving rather late, these varieties will be sown, and the result carefully noted, and if they make good the promise of excellence, the crop will be for distribution next fall to such farmers as signify a desire to try them. Farmer.

THE EX PRESIDENT—SOUTHERN FEELING.—The Southern excursion party, composed of John W. Forney, General Van Wyck and others, returned to Washington on the evening of the 4th inst. The trip is represented as having been a very pleasant one socially, but the political aspect of Southern society is said to be by no means encouraging. The excursionists do not so far as their observation goes, draw a very flattering future for Ex President Johnson in Tennessee. There is a great deal of talk in the State relative to his recent speeches, but it is highly improbable that he will again take a leading part in national or even State politics. The excursionists were met by his son in law, Ex Senator Patterson, at one of the railroad stations in East Tennessee, and, cordially greeted. Politics are said to be considerably con fused in North Carolina, but the Republican party will, it is stated, be able to hold the State for many years to come. The feeling against Republican Northern settlers, particularly New Englanders, is bitte, and it is felt that prosperity to the South can only come after a radical change of sentiment.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

WHY IS IT?

Why Is It?

IF "THE BUCKEYE" RECEIVED ALL THE ——— premiums at State Fairs during 1868. WHY IS IT that the OFFICIAL RECORDS of said State Fairs make mention of a different Mowing ——— and at the ——— State Fair in Ohio, where the BUCKEYE originated, WHY IS IT that not ——— standing a small army of men in the ——— ——— were on hand to represent a Mower made of Rosewood and Polished Iron, driven by a pair of ——— upon a carpeted platform and were ——— at the numerous applicances and leaving no ——— made use to secure the coveted First Prize ——— conviction in the latter premises again we repeat, WHY IS IT that a "CLIPPER" of ordinary shop finish and represented by a single obscure agent carried off the same Iron Premium ——— in competition with the "BUCKEYE" and a dozen other leading mowers?

Why Is It?

If "the BUCKEYE" captured the Gold and Gold Medals at the great National Trial ——— concerning which so many changes have been rung—WHY IS IT that it would not be well and tasty to ADD the first ever same time ago (1868), and THEY only in a "CERTAIN CLASS" ——— as a mower and that at the same trial in certain other "classes" several OTHER machines captured Gold and Gold Medals?

Why Is It?

If the 'Buckeye is acknowledged by ALL the world as the best machine invented ——— WHY IS IT that at numerous Field Trials, County and State Fairs in 1868 a different verdict was ——— and further, WHY IS IT that in so many of the large grain growing districts east of the Rocky Mountains the Farmers should be unaware of this important fact, and other Points besides the "Buckeye" should so largely have the preference!

Why Is It?

If "the 'Sweepstakes' is the best Thresher extant," WHY IS IT that the sales of some other manufacturers should so greatly exceed those of the Sweepstakes! and WHY IS IT that a ——— of the oldest buyers along the Hillsboro GIVE THE PREFERENCE to grain threshed and cleaned with the IMPROVED "CHALLENGER?" And again, WHY IS IT that after all this "fuss and blow" brought to bear in favor of the "Sweepstakes," and to make Farmers believe that the sun rises and sets in a "Sweepstakes"—Separator year after all this agony, sitting up of nights and painting "Sweepstakes" and "Buckeye" on boards to adorn Fir Trees along the road side, WHY IS IT that the Most Intelligent and Experienced Threshers pronounce in favor of the "CHALLENGER?"

Why Is It?

If certain "honorable" and "upright" dealers do not aim to mislead the public, WHY IS IT that they advertise themselves as SOLE agents for the genuine Haines' Header?"

We have not space to enumerate several more queries that present themselves; but while we do not wish to detract from the merits of the "Buckeye" or "Sweepstakes," we would caution Farmers not to be HUMBUGGED and MISLED by unduly representations, garbled reports and statements, but to look about an make a personal examination and comparison of the various IMPROVEMENTS lately made on harvesting machines, before buying. If then not fully satisfied as to which is the BEST MACHINE we will allow any purchaser the privilege of working a "Clipper" alongside of a "Buckeye Mower;" a Dodge's Improved "Ohio and Buckeye" Hand or Self-Raking Reaper and Mower of the new style alongside of a "Buckeye Self-Raker;" or a Pitt's "Challenger" alongside of a "Sweepstakes." he agreeing to keep and pay for the machine preferred

We invite and challenge THIS SORT of competition, not fearing the intelligent farmer's choice. Such trials are more satisfactory to the farmer than all this "claptrap" of prizes awarded and high sounding statements of superiority. More anon

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 28 1869

Will They Do It?

We believe that all the Democratic papers Oregon save two have spoken out decisive- for the repudiation of the national debt. he Portland Herald, the La Grande Sentinel, ie Albany Democrat, the Dallas Times, the ugene Guard, and the Jacksonville News are l devoting nearly their whole space to this ubject. The Yamhill Courier, is the only aper which has spoken positively against ie dishonor, though the Salem Press has, we ink, feebly protested against it. Now the uestion arises, can those journals which ave declared so emphatically for repudiation orce the dogma on their party? We shall ee at the next Democratic State Convention. hat. Convention must either pronounce oldly for repudiation or utterly ignore the natter which these organs have been telling is is the one sole issue. If the Convention akes the position which they advocate, there an be no doubt of the fate of the Democratic party; for repudiatipn is as odious to he people as secession ever was. If it does ot take this position these newspapers will e compelled to abandon their pretensions as rgans of the Democratic opinion.

The assumption that all the national bonds are held by the rich and that they are to be paid by exactions from the poor will hardly go down with intelligent people. Of course the larger portion of the Democracy would vote on the question of repudiation, as they habitually do on all other questions, just as their leaders would tell them; but men would be found in every neighborhood who have heretofore acted with that party, who could not be forced into voting for the perpetration of this scheme of national dishonor. It is well known that large amounts of national securities are held by the laboring classes. Our richest men, as a general rule, own no bonds. They can do better with their money. But people of small means have bought these securities as a permanent and safe investment. The amount held by these classes in every one of our great States aggregates many millions of dollars. They are held in sums varying from twenty to one thousand dollars. These facts were pointed out by the late Democratic candidate for the Presidency in his campaign speeches. A repudiation party would have a particularly good time going before this class of people and asking them to vote for the destruction of their own party.

Two Opinions.

The San Fra[illegible] Call is a Democratic paper, and, like most of its kind, is mortally afraid of the Chinese. About two months ago it published an editorial under the title of "The Question of Chinese Suffrage," in which it recited some of the provisions of [illegible] treaties with China, and went on to say:

Under the provisions of this treaty, if the proposed amendment should be adopted, there is no doubt that the Chinese would have the right to vote, if they should desire. As to existing naturalisation laws, they would be nothing in the face of the proposed amendment and the above-quoted provisions of the Chinese Treaty.

It is now become apparent to the Call that the proposed suffrage amendment will be ratified. That paper now has no motive for continuing to misrepresent the matter; therefore it says:

The Fifteenth Amendment has nothing to do with naturalization. Congress establishes the rules for the naturalization, and makes such rules as it pleases. Fifteenth Amendment or no Fifteenth Amendment. The amendment relates wholly to suffrage, and not to naturalization.

In this last extract the truth is told. A comparison of its statements with those of the first extract will illustrate the habitual inconsistency of those whose only policy is opposition to the measures of the Republican party.

In General.

The New York Herald of May 3d, contains a long opinion, by Chief Justice Chase, declaring that Legal tender notes are exempt from State taxation.

Governor Fenton, Train and Andy Johnson endorse Senator Sprague's recent course. The most consistent enemies of the little Rhode Island Senator ought to be fully satisfied.

Before the completion of the overland railroad the Government paid $1,100 per mile a year for the transportation of the mails. The price now paid is $200 a mile per annum.

The Sacramento Union has a report that the 1,250 Chinese who came by the last China steamer to San Francisco, are to be forwarded to Chicago directly, and that the firm in Chicago have a contract to furnish 50,000 Chinese for work on plantations in the Southern States.

The Boston Advertiser remarks with wonder that "during the past winter in Oregon ice was not formed, no snow fell and farming operations continued as if it were not the winter season." Boston, the hub of America, the center of all knowledge, should have known long ago something about the mildness of our climate.

Ten of the continental nations of Europe, embracing 130,000,000 inhabitants, have adopted the uniform gold coinage, and Mr. Ruggles, who knows more about it than any other American, says that Germany with its 38,000,000, and Russia with its 68,000,000 will probably come into the arrangement this summer.

Beverly Johnson said in a recent dinner speech at the London Tavern that if, in the hereafter, we remember the scenes of this, this dinner would be one of his fondest memories. Thereupon the Pall Mall Gazette wittily remarks: "Mr. Johnson in Heaven dreaming of the cuisine at the London Tavern must be a delightful object of contemplation for the proprietors of that hostelry."

The Suez Canal will be completed in a short time, and its Engineer is endeavoring to get up an international excursion party around the world. His idea is to have one hundred gentlemen of different nationalities meet in Paris in the Spring of 1870, who are to proceed to Egypt and be present at the opening of the canal. His programme from that point is a visit to China and Japan, thence across the Pacific ocean to San Francisco, and across the American Continent by the Pacific Railroad to New York.

The St. Louis Democrat in an energetic article on our claims against Great Britain says: "Sooner or later, England will find France striking to avenge Waterloo. When that day comes the sea will swarm with cruisers not built in France. We shall be neutral, as England was. But no administration that this country will ever see can prevent thousands upon thousands of Americans, while the present feeling exists, slipping off to sea in swift ships to pay that debt. The time will come when England will have to submit to insult from all Europe, because it does not dare to set loose Yankee privateers."

San Francisco Politics.

A letter from San Francisco to the Yreka Journal contains the following political information:

The Democracy have a majority in San Francisco, and a large one too, there is no denying that fact, but in spite of it, the Republicans succeeded in electing the Chief of Police at the last election. The Democrats have a majority in the city of about 2,500, and under ordinary circumstances can make a pretty clean sweep. But they must have harmony, and how can they be harmonious when every member in the party that can read and write wants a county or city office, and those that can't, expect to be policeman. Now, McCoppin has ruled San Francisco for two years, and naturally wants it another term, and in order to make himself safe, as he thought, he turned out of the police force every man who happened to have the misfortune to be born in the United States, and put in his place an exile from Erin. This was all well, for the Irish vote in San Francisco is by no means to be sneezed at, but unfortunately the Mayor overdid the thing. His new policeman proved to be anything but effective. A new broom may sweep clean, but a new policeman is not always efficient. The newly appointed guardians of the city were too fond of sitting on boxes in the day time, and looking in at the gay and festive scenes of concert saloons in the evenings, and the first thing we knew the thieves pretty nearly had captured the town. Every night somebody was robbed, and occasionally, just to give variety to the performance, the garroters would catch a policeman and give him a taste of their style. These proceedings aroused the ire of the "Independent Press," and that potent institution forthwith pitched into the Mayor and his policemen in a very disagreeable manner. And the Mayor published a card, and the "Independent Press" made invidious remarks in regard to it that were not calculated to soothe the ruffled temper of our municipal chief, and he returned to the charge by another card. It might be naturally supposed that this warfare ought to improve our Mayor's chances of sure re election, but strangely enough it is not the case, notwithstanding the wise discrimination made in his police appointments. The Call, which represents the class from from which the appointments were made, throws Coppin overboard, and supports a poor man for the Mayoralty.

Deceit of Song Writers.

The man who wrote "Home, Sweet Home," never had a home.—Ex.

No, of course not. All his folks at home say he didn't. Nobody who writes about anything ever has it. If a man is out of anything he immediately goes and writes something about it. No one writes so many "headings" as the man who is out of his head.

Certainly he didn't ever have any home. The man who wrote "Old Arm Chair" never had an arm chair in his life. The best he had was an old splint-bottom chair without any arms or back to it.

The author of "Take Me Back to Switzerland" never was in Switzerland. The nearest he ever came to it was sitting in the William Tell saloon eating Switzer kase. Kase why, that was the best he could do.

"Mother I've Come Home to Die," hasn't spoken to the old woman for years, and wouldn't go near the house. Besides he is one of that class of spiritualists who don't believe they ever will die. His health was never better. His mother is nothing but a mother-in-law, and she is dead.

There is the author of "The Old Oaken Bucket," too. There wasn't a bucket on the whole farm; water being drawn with a tin pail and a cistern pump.

"If I Had but a Thousand a Year," stated privately to his friends that he would be perfectly contented with half that sum, as he was doing chores just for his board and three months' schooling in the winter.

The author of "Champagne Charley" never drank anything but ten cent whisky.

The man who wrote "Mary had a Little Lamb" knew very well it was nothing but a little lamb fry.

"Shells of Ocean" is a humbug. The plaintive poet who represents himself as wandering, one Summer's eve, with pensive thought on a sea-boat shore, was raised in the interior of Pennsylvania, and never was ten miles away from his home in all his life. "Gathering Shells," did he? All the shells he ever gathered were some egg shells back of his mother's kitchen.

"Hark! I hear the Angels Singing!" spent all his evenings in a concert beer saloon. Angels, indeed!

The man wrote the "Song of the Shirt" hadn't a shirt to his back, wearing a wampum for the most part.

"Oft in the Stilly Night" used to get on a spree and make the stilly night howl till the break of day.

The author of "We Met by Chance," knew very well it was arranged beforehand. He had been weeks in contriving it—and she admired his contrivance.

The author of "I Know a Bank," etc., didn't know one where he could get his note discounted. The only check he ever held was a 'white check' in a faro bank. He never had a red check in his life.

"What are the Wild Waves Saying?" knew very well they were reproaching him for running away from Long Branch without paying his hotel bill.

"Who will care for Mother Now?" Who, indeed! You took the old woman to the poor house just before writing the song, and there is no one but the Poor Master to care for her now.

"Hear me Norma," was deaf and dumb. He couldn't make her ja hear, nor ma.

"My Mother Dear," used to thrash the old woman within an inch of her life.

"Let me kiss him for his Mother," got mad because his mother wouldn't have him, and whipped her little boy within an inch of his life.

"I Dreampt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," used to cheat at marbles when a boy, and his dream was a horrid nightmare, brought on by remorse at the recollection of fraudulent marble hauls.

"I'm Saddest when I Sing," was tickled almost to death when invited to.—Cincinnati Times

IDAHO MINING NEWS.—The Idaho World of the 20th inst. has the subjoined:

During the week the large mining company o Noble, Elkins, Saunders and Wood, have made three clean ups, with an aggregate product of about $11,000. Two of these clean-ups were made in the claim under the immediate charge of Mr Saunders, on Buena Vista Bar, to the south of the Boise City stage road. From these two the product was about $6,000. The other clean-up was made in the claim on the hill, back of Buena Vista Bar, which is under the charge of Doc. Noble. We were given opportunity to witness this clean-up, on last Friday afternoon, and it was a very interesting sight. The product was between $1,000 and $3,000, and was considered a good one. There are two gangs of five men each working in the claim, who run it day and night continually, and a good head of water is kept, in steadily piping and falling streams, upon the banks clear to the bed rock. The clean up of the Noble claim was from a run of eleven days. Those in the Saunders claim were from two short runs of about seventeen days, with an average of 16 hands employed day and night. The company are also constantly running three or four other hydraulic claims along Bonum hill, on Elk creek, and down along Moore creek. They have taken out a total of about $40,000 since the opening of the season in March, and have about one hundred men employed—all white men, too, and no Chinamen—and the lowest wages they pay is five dollars (clean dust) per day. They fully deserve the success they enjoy.

ORIGIN OF CHIGNONS.—It is remarkable that the African ladies first introduced a very inferior kind of chignon, natural, and formed of their own hair. It is minutely described in the last entertaining volume of M. du Chaillu. This enterprising traveler found the Ishoge belles cultivating a remarkable sort of chignon. The hair is trained into tower shaped masses, eight to ten inches high, and, as the illustrations show in three distinct styles, projecting obliquely, horizontally, and vertically from the crown. The structure requires years of careful training ere it reaches the perfection attained by Ishoga leaders of fashion. A really good chignon is not attained till the age of twenty or twenty-five. "It is the chief object of ambition with young Ishoge women to possess a good well greased tower of hair." In Europe (and in this country, sad to say) it is the ambition of every fashionable young lady to wear at the back of her head an artificial chignon, composed of hair cut from the heads of others, either living or dead. In Ishoge, "once fixed, these chignons remain for a couple of months without requiring to be re arranged, and the mass of insect life that accumulates on them during that period is truly astonishing."

Among the converts to Protestantism in Japan is the Prime Minister of one of the great daimios, with his brother, son and physician, who have all been baptized. These facts were not concealed from the Daimio, who did not reprimand or punish the profession of Christianity, though it is contrary to stringent laws. On the other hand he has taken to reading the Scriptures, and has sent his minister to the missionary, earnestly requesting him to come to his capital and take up his residence there permanently, in order to establish schools throughout his dominions upon a Christian foundation.

FOREIGN NOTES.

Christine Nilsson denies that she is about to marry the Duc de Massa, or anybody else, just at present.

Charles Dickens has, it seems, been ordered by his medical advisers to discontinue his public readings for the present. His voice and heart are said to be affected.

Miss Braddon, the novelist, is in very bad health, and obliged for the present to give up all work. This fact was flatly contradicted the other day in an English paper, but it is a fact, notwithstanding.

The incorporation of the Duchy of Lauenburg with Prussia is shortly to take place, negotiations for that purpose having been concluded in Berlin between Count Bismarck and the representatives of the Duchy.

A report has been circulated through Europe to the effect that the Emperor of the French had been badly bitten in the calf by a mad dog. The Emperor, however, is alive, and apparently well. The case, perhaps, is like the wonderful event commemorated by Goldsmith, when "the man recovered of the bite; the dog it was that died."

Hugo's novel in England, instead of appearing in Once a Week, is running in the Gentleman's Magazine, in which it did not begin till the May number, which appeared April 23. Some one reckons that each of the four volumes of L'Homme qui Rit, is paid for by the Paris publisher at the rate of $100,000; that each volume has 368 pages, and each page 22 lines; so that each line brings Victor Hugo, as a first instalment, $1 25.

There are portions of Germany still remaining in which the Jews rest under political disabilities. In Anhalt, Jews are excluded from the senate and the judicial bench; members of the free Christian churches are deprived of all civil rights. In Bremen, non Christians are excluded from the senate and the higher legal offices. In Lauenburg, Lippe Detmold, Altenburg, Schwarzburg, Sondershausen, Reuss and Mecklenburg, Israelites are excluded from all public offices. In Prussia and the other States of North German Confederation no religious disabilities exist.

The Duke of Edinburg (Prince Alfred of England) has sent in a little bill to the nation of £3,371 as "the cost of presents and gratuities by his Royal Highness at the Cape and Australia, and during his present voyage in H. M. S. Galatea." This is princely generosity of a novel kind. The Prince makes his presents at the expense of the nation. Yet he enjoys as the gift of that nation a very handsome, indeed a splendid income; and he has all the pay and emoluments of the high naval command to which he has been prematurely and absurdly elevated. Could he not contrive, if he likes to be generous, to pay for his presents out of his own pocket? On the whole, however, he is less mean than Prince Christian, son in law of the Queen, who received on his marriage a handsome dowry from the State and a good income; and yet, when traveling to Germany, the other day, to see his sick father, actually charged his traveling expenses to the English people.

Odds and Ends.

Fashionable invitations to dinner in Paris contain the bill of fare.

Spain wants England to give it a loan, and America to let it alone.

Threatening—that is paying the petty expenses of a guest—is, says the Pall Mall Gazette, a pure Americanism. English gentlemen do nothing of the kind.

The Mormons of London expelled one hundred and two of their number last year for misbehavior. What could they have done to make them unfit for Mormon communion?

The monarchs are to meet this year. King William and the Emperor Napoleon will see each other at a German watering place, and the Czar will call upon the King of Prussia in June.

A French critic says that Frenchmen who have the blues should learn English in order to read Abbott's Life of Napoleon III. He never laughed more heartily than upon reading a few chapters.

A dandy at a hotel table, who wanted the milk passed to him, thus asked for it: "Please send your cow this way." To whom the lady replied as follows: "Waiter, take the cow down to where the calf is bleating."

The Independent objects to the popular adjective "long haired" as applied to reformers, and gives a list of notable leaders who have not hair enough to keep their heads from suffering the winter's cold.

A Down East girl, being bantered once by some of her female friends in regard to her lover, who had the misfortune to have but one leg, replied: "Pooh! I wouldn't have a man with two legs—they're too common."

A lady said to her husband, in Jerrold's presence: "My dear, you certainly want some new trousers." "No, I think not," replied the husband. "Well," Jerrold interposed, "I think the lady who wears them ought to know."

D'Orsay, in remarking on a beauty speck on the cheek of Lady Southampton, compared it to a gem on a rose leaf. "The compliment is far-fetched, observed her ladyship. "How can that be," rejoined the Count, "when it is made on the spot."

Kentucky has three interests: the raising of corn, the manufacture of it into whisky, and trading horses. The water power of the State is occupied by distilleries, and at every railroad station is to be seen a bonded warehouse for storing whisky.

A gentleman being asked by a clergyman why he did not attend the evening prayer meeting, said he could not leave the children. "Why, have you no servant?" "Yes," he replied "we have two servants who keep the house and board us, but we are allowed very few privileges."

A joker was taken ill with some cutaneous eruption, which was at first thought to be small pox, but afterward decided to be varioloid. Whereupon he remarked, "If that was the very alloyed, he should prefer the unalloyed." He recovered from his sickness in three days, and from the joke in six months—a striking instance of the tenacity of life.

The yak, a bovine animal inhabiting Thibet, has been subjected to a series of experiments in France, with a view to ascertaining whether the propagation can be made profitable. Several years ago a herd of these animals was presented to the Society of Acclimation. The yak is about 7 feet long and 4 high. It resembles the ox, but has a bushy tail like the horse; its hair curls like some kinds of wool, and it indulges in a peculiar grunt, which might be easily mistaken for that of a pig. The wandering tribes of Tartars hold the yak of high value, because it is a sure-footed beast of burden, and the female yields a rich milk, the butter from which has become quite an article of merchandise. Its horns are sometimes as white as ivory. Its meat has a flavor somewhat resembling that of venison. The wild yak of Thibet is found near the snow-line of the mountains, and it is not improbable that this animal would be found of great use if introduced into the mountain regions of the Western part of the United States.

A few days ago a small boy fell off a wharf in this city, and was rescued from drowning by the bystanders. Seeing his mother coming down the street, he expressed himself as preferring to drown rather than risk the consequences of getting his clothes wet. Accordingly he sprung into the water three times more, being fished out each time with considerable difficulty. Finally his mother promised not to whip him, and he consented to accompany her. No sooner had the boy got home, however, than his mother broke her promise, and gave him an unmerciful thrashing. Portsmouth (N. H.) Chronicle.

"AND THE GRASSHOPPER SHALL BE A BURDEN."—If there is one passage of Scripture which the people of Kansas have learned by heart, it is this one. If not, it is probable that they will soon have another opportunity, if the statement of the Leavenworth Bulletin be correct, that to go a little way out of that town one may count the grasshoppers by thousands on every yard of ground. They are at present juveniles, and we trust that before attaining full growth they will leave for "fresh fields and pastures new."

The editor of the Minnesota Federal Union apologizes for the shabby appearance of his paper, says delinquents do not pay up their subscription and concludes with this compliment to the Minnesotians. "In no land where we have heretofore dwelt have we been so extraordinarily humbugged, and discovered so many full-fledged 'shysters' and 'scalawags' as in this of Minnesota. They appear to spring up spontaneously, and to be indigenous to this fertile soil."

THE INGRATES.—Pollard, in his life of Jeff. Davis, asserts that a secret junta, composed of the Senators of Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas—Fitzpatrick, Clay, R W Johnson, Sebastian, Yulee, Mallory, Iverson, Toombs, Slidell, Benjamin, Davis, Brown, Wigfall, Hemphill—met at Washington, in one of the rooms of the Capitol, on the night of January 5, 1861, and formed an organization, which took control of all political and military operations in the South, dictated the seizing forts, arsenals and custom houses, and did the whole work of revolution, while the members were every day in their accustomed seats in the United States Senate.

PEOPLE SHAKE not with fear as to the future of Portland but with the Ague, which can be cured in six hours and no return of the chills or dumb ague or its kindred ills, by using the celebrated and sure South Carolina Ague Cure. It is sold at the reasonable price of $1 00 per bottle. Call at "The Oregon Dispensary" for your Serious Medicines, for they are all pure, fresh and cheap and will be compounded for by the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in the city. THE MAMMOTH OX!

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON: LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS:

F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,

BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,

THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!

propose to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production, and before leaving the State they wish every man, woman and child to see and in order to give them an opportunity, they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents, children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Coast, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most—and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men—make a note of this and remember—MONEY MAKES THE OX GO, and patronize accordingly

☞ W. C. Avery will also have a supply of MRS. SLEEPER'S BALSAMIC BALSAM on hand m27dtf

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 25.

Religious Matters.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The New School Assembly, after a long discussion on the report of the committee on Foreign Missions, modified the report by the omission of California Chinese affairs, and so modified, the report was adopted.

A communication was received from the Reformed Church, proposing a Convention of all Evangelical denominations, to meet in this city next fall. It was referred to a special committee.

It appears that the basis of union previously sent, if adopted, will be referred to a joint committee, to meet at Pittsburg in August next, to consider such further questions as may be necessary to a formal consummation of the Union.

In the Old School Assembly, to-day, a resolution was offered and adopted deploring the present state of feeling between this country and Great Britain. The Committee on Foreign Missions reported an insufficiency of receipts to meet expenses. A resolution was adopted pledging the Presbyterians to sustain the work.

The clerk recorded the votes of the Presbyterians on a basis of reunion. So far as known, 36 are in favor of and 107 against. The report was re committed for correction.

In the New School Assembly, Dr. Fisher read a report on the conference with the other Presbyterian bodies. Delegates from the Old and New Schools and other bodies met and unanimously agreed that reunion is most desirable, if any way can be made clear. The following four points were submitted as a basis of reunion; First, the Old and New Testaments are accepted as the rule of faith; second, the Westminster Confession and Catechism, slightly modified, as far as regards civil law, are adopted as a full and accurate interpretation of Holy Writ; third, the united churches to accept the Presbyterian form of Government; fourth, the united churches to accept the Psalmody and prescribe its use. The report was referred to a standing committee on reunion.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Specials say that the State Department is becoming uneasy because of the continued silence of Minister McMahon. A letter of recall was sent him several months ago, but no answer has been received. John Cochrane will probably be appointed to succeed Minister McMahon.

CHICAGO, May 25.—A Times special says it can be positively stated that Motley's instructions do not contemplate immediate action on the Alabama question. They are more general than specific in character, and contain the usual diplomatic parlance requiring Motley to state to the English government that it is the desire of President Grant to adjust all questions of international difference on a basis that will strengthen the friendly relations of the two countries.

A large number of applications have been received from colored men for clerkships in the Internal Revenue Bureau.

A Tribune special says Minister Washburne expresses the opinion that Minister McMahon has been killed.

Advices from the plains are of a character that cause a fear of trouble with the Indians. Present arrangements favor great dispatch in forwarding supplies which are already on the way. It is expected their prompt arrival will prevent an outbreak. If general hostilities can be avoided until new agents reach their stations, it is believed this summer will pass without war.

Gen. Dyer has been re-assigned to the chief command of Ordnance.

It is reported by well informed persons that the Spanish Government will soon send a decree requesting that all citizens of the realm or colonies residing in foreign countries who own property in Cuba, shall register their names within a stated period with the nearest consul and take the oath of allegiance to the mother country, otherwise all property belonging to such parties will be liable to seizure.

New York News.

The patients were sent to the small pox hospital on Blackwell's Island.

Scott & Munson, storage merchants, have disappeared with $65,000, the proceeds of a sale of oats stored with them. The owners of the oats are not known, but are supposed to be Western men.

It was stated yesterday that the accounts of Bushmore, President of the Atlantic National Bank, Brooklyn, who was killed by the recent Long Island railroad accident, showed a deficit of nearly $25,000, which has caused a slight run on that bank. All fears were allayed, however, by a pledge of the Directors of the soundness of the bank.

Among the passengers by the Rising Star, yesterday, was Senor Bethean, a Court Commissioner from the new Cuban Government to Washington City.

H. B. Willet's stable, Brooklyn, burned last night. Loss, nearly $100,000.

NEW YORK, May 26.—B. H. Van Burgh, President of the Durango Silver Mining Co., attempted suicide to-day at his office by cutting his throat with a razor. No motive is assigned for the act. His recovery is pronounced hopeless.

Col. Frank N. Walker, of Lockport, New York, has been appointed Treasury Agent for the 16th Customs Revenue District, with headquarters at Sitka.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, May 26.—Hayti advices reported that Salnave recently declared suspension of hostilities for three days, and offered amnesty to all the rebels who surrender. Many availed themselves of this offer.

Miscellaneous.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., May 25.—Judge Busteed is now holding court here. The Congressional Committee, to investigate his conduct, are all expected to night.

Over eight hundred vocal organists have reported their intention to join the great peace jubilee.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Two days have been spent in endeavoring to get a jury in the trial of Wm. A. Robinson, for the murder of Gen. McConnell at Jacksonville. Ninety-six men were examined, and only eight have yet been accepted.

A dispatch from St. Paul denies emphatically the statement that forty Indian children and a number of old women and others recently died. No unusual suffering for food and clothing exists among the Indians or has for the past two years.

Seven dwellings on Aberdeen street were destroyed by fire yesterday. The wind was very brisk and the structures were all wood, so that the fire spread with rapidity. It was caused by boys in a barn playing with matches and powder.

A colored man, named James, beat to death, with a leather strap, yesterday, his little nephew nine years old. The affair caused great excitement among the colored population in the vicinity.

A Canadian, named Stephenson, with two children, who has been stopping at a boarding house in this city for some weeks, yesterday placed his children aboard a Canadian propeller and returned to the house, where he cut his throat with a razor. The deed was done with the utmost calmness and deliberation. The suicide was very precise in the instructions left as to the disposition of his body. The deed was done apparently that the children might obtain the amount of a large insurance on his life.

NEW ORLEANS, May 26.—A number of the appliances and the Great Western railroad were sold to-day at auction under an order of the United States Court, the principal interests represented were the Illinois Central and the Mobile and Chattanooga railroads. The bond holders of the road, and Charles Morgan. The bid started at $1,000,000 and rapidly run up to $2,000,000, when Morgan bid $2,050,000, at which price it was knocked down.

PROVIDENCE, May 26.—The General Assembly met to-day at Newport. The votes for State officers were counted and the new officers sworn in.

OSWEGO, N. Y., May 26—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars of North America, are holding a session here. Nearly all the States and Canada are represented.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A Herald's cable dispatch says the Times to-day says, in view of the approaching arrival of Motley, that it has concluded that Motley will make no fresh overtures on the Alabama claims. As no new proposals have been offered to England, there will be a dead lock on the question. This would effect no apprehension, but from the fact that the Americans display no disposition to derive their material from their sentimental grievances. It says, whatever may have happened, owing to the neutrality proclamation of the Queen, was purely accidental.

The Herald's Paris special says the organization of Legitimists and moderate Republican candidates have been beaten everywhere. The Radicals are victorious in Paris and Lyons. Thiers and Jules Favre are defeated.

The new Corps Legislatif will be composed wholly of Government and Radical members. It meets on June 11.

Judge Allen, formerly of Arizona, died in prison on Monday.

The loss by the sinking of the Austrian ship Figlea is $400,000.

LONDON, May 25.—The Epsom races have commenced. The moderate stakes for two years were won by Marre's filly, Sunshine, beating a field of nineteen. The rouse stake was won by Walt's filly, Miss Alice, beating eight others.

VIENNA, May 25.—Minister Jay has arrived here.

FLORENCE, May 25.—The Austrian Consul, at Leghorn, while walking with Col. Greenville, was killed by an assassin. Colonel Greenville was wounded. Col. Greenville said he was the intended victim.

PARIS, May 26—Evening.—The excitement over the elections is very great. The Boulevards are crowded with people anxious to hear the result. Further returns announce the election of nine official candidates, three independent, two Democrats and two Liberals. In addition to those reported this morning, Rashil, Farre and Dore are all elected.

LONDON, May 26.—A Times' editorial on the French elections says the chief cities repudiate the idea of the empire, and a revival of political activity will result, which will condemn the Provisional Government. The restoration of Parliamentary Government may conciliate existing feeling. By such means only can the Emperor expect to mitigate the apprehensions which have nearly become a dynasty.

The Alabama Claims.

DISCUSSION OF MR. SUMNER'S SPEECH BY THE BRITISH PRESS.

[From the Times, April 30.]

At last we have a full, though perhaps not final statement of the Alabama claims in the elaborate speech of Mr. Charles Sumner to the United States Senate. Compared with any former estimate that has been made by Mr. Seward or Mr. Adams, that of Mr. Sumner is portentious in its exorbitance, but we cannot be sure that it is final, since Mr. Sumner himself warns us that such demands have a tendency to increase, like the price of the Sybilline volumes. * * * It is impossible to read this remarkable speech—for remarkable it is, in spite of its many inconsistencies—without a sense of disappointment. The concluding paragraphs express sentiments which are sure to find an echo in England, and its prevailing tone is rather that of passionate remonstrance than of menace, yet it betrays a one sided partisanship which is truly lamentable in the representative of a great country. One example will suffice. Not a word is said from beginning to end of the part played by France during the civil war. Though France acted with Great Britain throughout, and though it is a matter of history that the Emperor would have recognized the independence of the Confederation had not our Government opposed it, Mr. Sumner argues as if Great Britain were the only foreign Power in the world, and implacably hostile to his own country. It is not too much to say that at one moment the fate of the American Union depended on the voice of England whose sword, had it really been thrown into the scale, as Mr. Sumner complains, together with that of France, would assuredly have decided the contest. That such intervention would have been indefensible, we have never ceased to declare, but does it not show an unfairness of mind bordering on infatuation to leave this consideration wholly out of account? Upon Mr. Sumner's principle, all this anti English feeling, which finds vent, too, in the encouragement of Fenianism, might be proved in aggravation of damages against the United States in the event of arbitration. Against any such principle we protest once and for all, not only as beneath the dignity of great nations, but as inevitably barren of any practical result. Let atonement be made for the insulting language of individuals, whether in England or America, by the retrospective verdict of public opinion, and the cultivation of mutual respect in private relations. Nations as such can only deal with overt acts, and overt acts are the only possible subjects of pecuniary compensation.

[From the Daily News, May 1st.]

* * * In round numbers we may reckon that the Alabama claims, according to Mr. Sumner's estimate, amount to nearly $500,000,000, and Mr. Sumner assures us that "the attempt to close this international debate without a complete settlement is little short of puerile." But it is surely far worse than puerile to carry on a great international debate with such arguments as these. In what Court of law could Mr. Sumner get even a hearing for claims which rest on the assumption of profits that might have been made? Yet he not only reckons such prospective profits in his estimate of loss, but adds to them the possible increase which might have taken place during the years of the war. The yet further claim of some $100,000,000 is probably only a rhetorical artifice, which takes the fancy of Americans, but which has on Englishmen only the effect of an anti-climax. Mr. Sumner is always serious, or we might suspect him of poking fun at his countrymen. He has ably stated the American side of the argument on the questions which are allowed to be open between us. He has given expression to that sore feeling which can neither be matter of argument nor of arbitration. But his figures simply remind us of more vulgar and common place compensation claims. What would satisfy him? Shall we take the five twenties and pay the interest on them? Shall we take one half of the debt and add it to our own? Even then we must add to it an humble apology. Mr. Sumner not only presents a bill of five hundred millions, but demands that we should pay it on our knees.

But such discussions as these are mere waste of time. It is one misfortune of the reopening of this question that it remits the whole dispute to rhetorical discussion by irresponsible persons. Mr Sumner may represent an influential American opinion on this subject, or he may not; but he does not represent the American Government. We have referred to his speech merely as letting us know what a great rhetorician could make of the argument in audience of the American people. Such discussions can, however, have but one result. They retard the settlement instead of advancing it. They surround a business question with all the complications and distractions of excited feeling. What we want to settle is how far we are responsible for certain injuries inflicted on American commerce, and when that is settled we will pay the bill.

[From the Morning Star, April 30.]

* * * The new feature which appears about to be introduced into the dispute is, that whereas formerly we have been chiefly discussing the losses and wrongs of individuals by the action of the cruisers, the new American Administration will make these subsidiary to the national losses and wrongs of which they allege England to be the cause. Mr Sumner, in his labored indictment against us, puts in the forefront of his set of claims the haste with which we recognized the Confederates as belligerents. That act, which was done by the Government of the day really as a means of keeping ourselves free from difficulty, was probably not considered with that due care and profound respect for the just sensibilities of the American people which we ought to have displayed. The issuing of the proclamation of recognition before the arrival of Mr. Adams cannot be defended. We do not know who was the adviser of the blunders which were committed in those days, but both our statesmanship and international law were unquestionably at fault. Still, the spirit of all that was done was not what the Americans imagine it to have been. The note may not have been wise, but at least the recognition was not done with any malicious intention of assisting the Confederates. The spirit—the bad and sinister spirit—which afterward came to display itself among our upper and a portion of our trading classes, would by no means be strong in 1861, and there was nothing in public opinion to coerce the Government into any doubtful course. * * * When Mr. Sumner, however, rises from the contemplation of the Alabama case with a determination to make us pay, not only for the losses actually inflicted on individuals, but for the accruing damage to the nation by the sale of merchant ships to the neutral flags, the waiting rates of insurances, and all the incidents damaging to commerce which necessarily occur during war, we must express our amazement at the charges of bad faith made against us. If Mr. Motley's instructions are worded in this spirit, his mission will be a very fruitless one. The extravagance of the proposition must strike every one who knows how serious the consequences of the abandonment of neutrality would be. The main idea of the war to deal fairly and justly by the United States. Whether there may have been, and there were, but considering how the passions of mankind were aroused by the vast conflict of the powers of darkness and light, the British Government kept a course remarkably free from any exhibitions of unfriendly feeling toward the United States. France, the old ally and sworn friend of the Republic, was ready to recognize the rebels as a nation; we, its old opponents and chief competitors, refused to do any act which might have been the crowning event of the war. Since the war has closed we have shown in every way a desire to arrive at an understanding with the sister nation. We have waived our objections to arbitration, we have waived our objections to have the recognition of the belligerent rights discussed, we have sent almost
